Cathlamet Girl is Critically Ill

The girl Madeline has been engaged to marry—her fiancé being a young Frenchman of Cathlamet.

In a statement made in writing and signed by the girl, and she believing it to be a dying statement, she is averred to have told all of the story as she knows it. She had been ill several months ago, and according to this story it is possible she had been wronged while under the influence of some anesthetic.

A week or so ago she and her mother came to this city to consult a physician, who informed the mother that the child was enceinte. The mother refused to believe it, and the young girl denied the possibility of it with all the vehemence of which she was capable. Her lover, the young Frenchman, also indignantly refused to believe it, and came to this city to demand an explanation from the physician.

Then, according to the story as told by those familiar with the circumstances, the mother and girl returned to Cathlamet, and the girl again went to Dr. Peacock for treatment, still refusing to believe that she was in any trouble. It is averred that serious consequences have resulted from Dr. Peacock's treatment on this occasion. The physicians at St. Mary's last night say that a criminal operation has been performed on the girl. Naturally until the facts all come to light in the matter it is not possible to state the truth of the whole episode.

The peculiar part of the whole story, and which is nevertheless entirely believed by some of those familiar with the facts, is that the girl was perhaps wronged while unconscious as the result of some anesthetic, and of course she also denies all knowledge of any criminal operation.

Appearances Against Him.

That he "was not so bad as he seemed," was proven by Mr. E. C. Judd when he showed that his heart was in the right place by his conduct in assisting his superior officer to prevent the elopement of his daughter with a common sailor.

GIVES A SPLENDID HOME PRESCRIPTION FOR STOMACH AND KIDNEY TROUBLE AND RHEUMATISM.

"The people here do not drink enough water to keep healthy," exclaimed a well known authority. "The numerous cases of kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism are mainly due to the fact that the drinking of water, nature's greatest medicine, has been neglected."

Stop loading your system with medicines and cure-alls but get on the water wagon. If you are really sick, why, of course, take the proper medicines—plain common vegetable treatment, which will not shatter the nerves or ruin the stomach."

To cure Rheumatism you must make the kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder, and, most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach trouble and poor digestion. For these conditions you can do no better than take the following prescription: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, but don't forget the water. Drink plenty and often.

This valuable information and simple prescription should be posted up in each household and used at the first sign of an attack of rheumatism, backache or urinary trouble, no matter how slight.

WAS GREAT DINNER.

Thanksgiving Day at Sorensen Logging Co.'s Camp at Svensen.

"Svensen, Or., Nov. 27, 1908.

"Editor Astorian: It is not necessary for me to say that the Sorensen Logging Company prove at all times of the best and most bountifully for their employees at their immense lumbering camp, located at the heart of Mary's Creek in Svensen precinct, nor of the ability of the efficient chef, Mr. Smith, who has been with them a number of years, whose cooking has given the lumbering camp a reputation with all the lumbering men that is of the best throughout this great Columbia water shed; and to be fortunate enough to receive an invitation from Mr. George Moore, the efficient superintendent to take Thanksgiving dinner there, was an unexpected pleasure, but appreciated to the fullest extent. There may have been handsomer decorated dining rooms and there may have been thanksgiving dinners that were just as good, but there never was a better one; and the good things to eat were a burden for the great 50-foot tables to sustain, when the 60-odd lumbermen who are now employed there with Mr. George Moore and family, Mr. Ed. Moore and family, Chef Smith and his estimable wife, Miss Lillie Campbell, their assistant, Clerk Tuttle and your humble servant did ample justice to the most tempting repast; this was the dinner menu:

Roast turkey, oyster dressing, cranberry sauce; roast turkey, brown gravy, cranberry jelly; roast pork, apple sauce; celery, sweet pickles, onion pickles, turkey salad Hollandaise; entrees: oyster patties, apple fritters, turkey croquettes, sardellen sauce; mashed potatoes with brown butter, parsley dressing, sweet potatoes (baked), sweet peas, sweet corn, tomatoes, mince pie, pumpkin pie, cream pie, lemon pie, apple pie, fruit cake, Boston cream cake, Lillies Dolly Varden, Angel's condried, cranberry tarts, cream tarts, jelly tarts, old English plum pudding, brandy sauce, coffee royal, coffee, cream, nuts and fruit.

AUSTRIA SNEERED AT.

ROME, Nov. 30.—Thousands gathered yesterday in a mass meeting for the purpose of expressing disapproval of the attitude of Austria. Three deputies delivered violent speeches: denouncing the Austrian policy. After the meeting rioters attempted to force the Austrian embassy but were prevented by troops.
